INFORMATION LETTER No. 1

DEAR COLLEAGUES!

Sochava Institute of Geography of the Siberian Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences, together with the Pacific Institute of Geography of the Far Eastern Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences and the Irkutsk Regional Branch of the Russian Geographical Society, is holding the 17th Scientific Meeting of Geographers of Siberia and the Far East with international participation, dedicated to the 50th anniversary of Baikal-Amur Railway and the memory of Academician Peter Baklanov, on September 9-14, 2024 in Irkutsk.

The meetings of geographers have been held regularly since 1959 in Irkutsk, Novosibirsk, Vladivostok and Ulan-Ude. They consider the main results and problems of geographical research in Asian Russia.

At the 17th meeting it is expected to consider and discuss the following key problems of geographical research in the eastern regions of Russia:

- historical experience of geographical research in the BAM zone;
- transformation of natural geosystems and their components under the climate change and anthropogenic impacts;

- response of social geography to geopolitical and economic transformations;
- territorial organization of environmental protection;
- geographical problems of sustainable development of cross-border regions (borderlands of China, Mongolia and Kazakhstan);
- mapping of Asian Russia and development of modeling and GIS technologies;
- the Baikal region as a stronghold for Russia's eastern regional policy;
- creative heritage of Academician Peter Baklanov
